“I Forgive You”

David A. Sargent

She killed his brother.

She is Amber Guyger, a former policewoman who returned home one night to what she believed to be her apartment after a 13-hour shift with the Dallas (TX) Police Dept. The tragic problem was that it was not her apartment; it was the apartment one floor directly above hers. Guyger entered the apartment thinking it was hers and saw a man inside. Thinking he was a burglar, she shot and killed him.

The victim was Botham Jean, (a member of the Lord's church - RWB), a 26-year-old accountant, who was in his living room watching football and eating ice cream. That night was his last on earth; he died after being shot by Guyger.

Guyger was tried and found guilty of murder. She was sentenced to 10 years in prison.

The victim's brother, Brandt Jean, age 18, asked to give a victim impact statement. His own family did not know what he was going to say and the impact that it would have on those in the courtroom and the world. Here is part of what he said:

"If you truly are sorry — I know I can speak for myself — I forgive you. And, I know if you go to God and ask Him, He will forgive you... I'm speaking for myself, not even [on] behalf of my family, but I love you just like anyone else. I'm not going to say that I hope you rot and die, just like my brother did, but I personally want the best for you. And, I wasn't ever going to say this in front of my family or anyone, but I don't even want you to go to jail. I want the best for you. Because I know that's what — that is exactly what Botham would want you to do. And the best would be [to] give your life to Christ. I'm not going to say anything else; I think giving your life to Christ would be the best thing that Botham would want you to do. Again, I love you as a person, and I don't wish anything bad on you."

Then Brandt turned to the judge and said, "I don't know if this is possible, but can I give her a hug, please? Please?"

"Yes," replied the Honorable Judge Tammy Kemp.

Then he got up from the stand and walked over to Guyger and they embraced in tears.

She killed his brother. And how did he respond? With a message of mercy and an emotional embrace. *

We killed the Son of God. It was because of our sins that Jesus died on the cross (see Acts 2:36; 1 Corinthians 15:1-3).

And how did Jesus respond? He willingly went to the cross (John 10:17-18) because that was the only way to pay for the sins of the world (1 John 2:2). Through the cross, Jesus says, "I forgive you."

God will forgive and give eternal life to those who place their faith and trust in Jesus (Acts 16:30-31), turn from their sins in repentance (Acts 17:30-31), confess Jesus before men (Romans 10:9-10), and are baptized (immersed) into Christ for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38). God will continue to cleanse from sin those who continue to walk in the light of His Word (1 John 1:7-9).

Brandt said he was expressing what his brother Botham would say to his killer: "the best thing for you to do is to give your life to Christ." What wonderful mercy and grace to point the offender to the One Who can forgive and give eternal life.

Give YOUR life to the One who gave His life for you. That is the best thing YOU can do.

BAPTISTERY

Our new baptistery is now completely installed, filled with water, and ready to use! We are thrilled to have it and wish to thank Eric Mowery, once again, for all of his hard work to complete this project.

BABY SHOWER

We will host a baby shower to welcome baby Emersyn Mowery on Sunday evening, October 20. Jacob & Katie are registered at Target. Please see Susan Smith with any questions.

FALL HARVEST PARTY

The entire congregation is invited to a gathering at the "combined" Smith homes on Saturday, Oct. 26 starting at 5:00pm. We will enjoy fall games, fellowship - costumes are welcome! More details to come!

SISTER FRIENDS

Our next ladies gathering will be on Nov. 9. More details to come. See Ouita Northcutt with any questions.

SNACK CARE BASKETS

Sister Friends, remember to help fill up our "snack pantry" for our care baskets each month. If you signed up to refill a basket around town, please remember to do so around the middle of each month. See April Holt with any questions.

THE ELDERS CORNER

People telling lies seem to have become a norm in our society. We are constantly being bombarded with untruths from our politicians, news people and others. It seems no one has any remorse for telling a lie. How does God feel about lies. They are right up there with "hands that shed innocent blood". Read Proverbs 6:16-19. The Lord hates lies.
