Love Doesn't Rejoice In Unrighteousness

By Joe Slater

Why would Paul write those words in 1 Corinthians 13:6? Rejoicing in unrighteousness -- what a horrible thought! Does anyone actually do that? I wish I could answer, "No, of course not!" But that wouldn't be true.

The Sanhedrin rejoiced when Judas agreed to betray Jesus (Mark 14:11). What could be more unrighteous?

Jesus told His disciples that when He was killed, they would weep and lament, but the world would rejoice (John 16:20). Is anything more unrighteous than murdering God's Son?

Paul warned the Philippians about enemies of the cross "whose god is their belly and whose glory (same word as rejoicing) is in their shame" (Philippians 3:19). Yes, they were rejoicing in unrighteousness!

Current American culture calls us all sorts of names if we refuse to rejoice in unrighteousness. Rather than being ashamed for murdering innocent, helpless babies, the pro-abortionists say, "Shout Your Abortion!" That is, be proud of it. When we speak the truth about abortion, we are vilified as "the Christian Taliban"!

Secular progressives insist we must congratulate and commend those in same sex "marriages" (so called). If you dare to affirm Biblical marriage, you are written off as unloving and intolerant.

The same crowd demands not just tolerance but approval of the "transgenderism" myth. When you decline to refer to William as "Wilma," you are maligned as a mean-spirited extremist and a bigot.

God is love (1 John 4:8), and God is righteous (Daniel 9:14). Since God is righteous, He cannot rejoice in unrighteousness, but that does not make Him unloving! Neither is it unloving when His people decline to rejoice in unrighteousness.

To our members and visitors:

Welcome to Clinton! We are glad you're here!

CLINTON CALENDAR

Nov 11	Sister Friends
Nov 23	Thanks-Singing
Nov 29	Sister Friends

SYMPATHY

We extend our sympathy to the family of Byron Hale who passed away last week. Byron was the husband of longtime member the late Sue Hale. The family will receive friends on Sunday, Nov. 6 from 1:00-2:00 at Memorial Methodist Church with the funeral at 2:00. A graveside service with military honors will be at 3:00 at Woodhaven Memorial Gardens in Claxton.

SILVER SAINTS

The Silver Saints invite you to join them this Wednesday, Nov. 2 at 10:00am here at the church building for a devotional, fellowship meal, and project - folding the latest issue of the India mission newsletter.

SISTER FRIENDS

The next meeting of our Sister Friends will be Friday, Nov. 11 at 7:00pm at the home of Annette Smith.

The next monthly restaurant meetup will be Tuesday, Nov. 29 at 11:00am at Miller's Market Cafe. Signup sheets for both events can be found in the foyer.

CLASS & WORSHIP LIVESTREAM

We continue to stream our Sunday morning worship services on our Facebook page. We also stream our Sunday AM adult Bible class, Sunday PM worship, and Wednesday PM class on the private group "Friends of Clinton Church of Christ." To view these classes when you're unable to be here in person, you must "join" this group.

SONG SERVICE + FINGERFOODS

We hope you'll be back this evening for our monthly singing service followed by a potluck fellowship meal. It's a wonderful time - so don't miss it!

EXTRA PARKING

We are thrilled to be having a problem with parking on Sunday mornings! Our parking lot has been full for the past few weeks. For those that are able, we have additional level parking available in the flat grassy lot that we purchased. The driveway entrance is on Main Street near the edge of our parking lot.

YOUTH SPOTLIGHT

Check our newly updated Youth Bulletin Board in the foyer - it's now the Youth Spotlight! We want to recognize the accomplishments of our young folks, so share anything you'd like with Laura Bentley or Joey Smith, and we'll get you on the board!

OUTREACH SUPPLIES NEEDED

Each Saturday, the South Knoxville Church of Christ conducts "Hands & Feet." Homeless individuals are able to stop by for non-perishable food items, toiletries, clothes, a hot meal, encouragement, and an invitation to come learn about Jesus and come to church. If you would like to contribute some items to this work, a box is in our foyer for those items. Please see Don and Amy Scott with any questions.

VISITATION & OUTREACH

Remember that our weekly visitation and outreach sheets are available at the rear of the auditorium along with a large selection of greeting cards. See Arthur Pigman with any questions.

THANK YOU

Thanks to everyone who came out last night to participate in our Fall Gathering. We had around 70 present and a great time was had by all - young and old alike! We had an incredible selection of soups and chilis, games for the kids, and even face-painting!
