Celebrating 83 Years in Clinton 1943 - 2026

This Can Be Your Best Year Yet

By Jeff Arnette

As a new year begins, we do not all step into it the same way. Some of us come hopeful and eager, ready for a fresh start. Others arrive cautiously, carrying disappointments from the year behind us. Some are grieving. Some are tired. Some are quietly wondering if they have the strength to face whatever comes next. God meets us in all of those places, and it is there that our confidence must begin.

Our assurance for the year ahead is not found in a calendar turning or in our ability to improve ourselves. It is rooted in who God is and what He has already declared to be true. Scripture says in Romans 8:31, "If God is for us, who can be against us?" That is not motivational language. It is a settled reality. God has set His love on His people, and He has not changed His mind. Whatever opposition we face, whatever uncertainty lies ahead, none of it outweighs the fact that the living God is for us.

Because God is for us, we do not approach this year as passive survivors. Romans 8:37 tells us, "In all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us." Notice that the verse does not deny hardship. It speaks of victory in the middle of real struggles. Through Christ, we are not merely enduring life. We are standing on the finished work of Jesus, confident that nothing we face is stronger than the love that holds us.

That confidence is not driven by personality or circumstance. It flows from faith. First John 5:4 reminds us, "This is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith." Faith is not pretending everything is fine. Faith is trusting God when things are not fine. It is choosing to believe that His promises are true even when emotions waver, and outcomes remain unseen. Faith anchors us when the world feels unstable, and it carries us forward when fear would otherwise hold us back.

Still, we are honest about our limitations. We do not face this year in our own strength. Philippians 4:13 declares, "I can do all things through him who strengthens me." This is not a claim that life will be easy or predictable. It is a confession that Christ supplies what we lack. When we are weak, He is present. When we are overwhelmed, He is sufficient. When we feel unsure, He remains faithful.

This year can be your best year yet, not because every plan will succeed or every problem will disappear, but because God will be with us in every step. We move forward standing on His promises, trusting His power, and resting in His presence. With quiet confidence and steady faith, we step into this year together, knowing that the God who has carried us this far will not fail us now.

One Step at a Time

By Edd Sterchi

One of the most vivid images in the Bible is what we read of in Psalm 119:105: "Your word is a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path." This presents a powerful picture, especially in the context of those who lived in biblical times.

In the times of the Psalmist, there were no powerful flashlights. The traveler carried a small oil lamp, whose flax wick gave off only a little light. There was enough to see by, but not enough to see very far down the path. There was basically just enough to take the next step or two without stumbling or falling.

What an appropriate reminder for us. The Word of God is a lamp to our path. It doesn't illuminate far into our personal future, but it does shine in our present. God's Word gives us the light to take our next step in life – and that's all we need to keep from stumbling.

If we fill our minds, hearts, and lives with God's Word, we will always have the light we need to know what we must do next.

To our members and visitors:
Welcome to Clinton! We are glad you're here!
