Celebrating 83 Years in Clinton 1943 - 2026

Behold Your Mother!

By Andrew Beasley

5 years old – Mom, I love you
12 years old – Mom, I can't stand you
16 years old – My mother is very annoying
18 years old – I'm leaving this house
25 years old – Mom, you were right.
30 years old – I want to go to my mom's house
50 years old – I don't want to lose my mother
70 years old – I would give up everything to have my mom here with me.

The importance of a mother cannot be understated and taking one day out of each year to honor the impact that mothers have on the lives of their children is not nearly enough.

In the most challenging hours of his human life, Jesus looked to His mother to make sure that she would be cared for. Think about that. With the weight of the sins of the world upon Him, the abuse of the Roman scourge having marked Him and the agony of the Roman cross encompassing Him, Christ still made provision for His mother.

That does not happen without a mother who had been a great blessing to Him.

So today we honor our mothers, and we thank you for every single blessing you have gifted your children with throughout their lives.

To our members and visitors:
Welcome to Clinton! We are glad you're here!

SPEAKING SCHEDULE

Preaching Today: Herb Byrd

SISTER FRIENDS

The ladies will meet for dinner on Monday, May 18 at 6:00pm at Mr. Wok in South Clinton. See Susan Smith with any questions.

There is also a signup sheet in the foyer for the Saturday, June 13 Sister Friends gathering that will begin at 2:00pm.

FOOD SURVEY

Ladies, please see Susan Smith or Gail Sharp if you are willing to help provide food at times of need for our church family members. (Or complete the survey about food that was emailed out this week.)

CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

Our brick exterior was completed last week. We are on the home stretch and final projects are being lined up right now: sidewalks, electrical, plumbing, drywall, and fixtures.

We continue to set aside contributions that go directly toward the building fund. As usually happens, the cost of construction has risen! If you wish to give towards the project, please see the elders or give your contribution to Joey Smith.
